'INFLATION' MOVE BY HOUSE BRINGS DRIVE ON DOLLAR

Foreign Money on Deposit in New York Begins To Move to Europe as Many Countries See Pressure on Dollar.

BELGIAN, DUTCH AND SWISS ADVANCE

British Government Checks Rise in Sterling by Selling Campaign; All Nations Watching.

NEW YORK, May 3.—(AP)—A sudden movement of foreign capital from this country to other money centers developed today, causing steady selling of the American dollar in the world's principal foreign exchange markets.

Leading authorities said the movement began in Europe this morning and carried over into the New York market after foreign markets closed. They attributed the shifting to fresh inflation scares abroad by passage of the Goldsmith bill by the house of representatives and to evidence that economy measures in Washington were meeting resistance.

The statements of advocates of these measures that unbridled inflation was not contemplated failed to reassure foreigners with money balances here, they added.

While the dollar slumped in most foreign markets, including South America, its weakness in terms of gold currencies was particularly noticeable. Belgian francs and Holland guilders went to new high prices.

Bankers said Holland was a heavy seller of dollars. Considerable movement of New York balances to London was also reported, but international exchange authorities said the Bank of England softened the rise of the pound sterling by selling sterling bills as an offset.

Belgian francs, Swiss francs and Holland guilders moved above the gold export point, at which figure it becomes profitable to ship gold in settlement of foreign transactions.

French francs held firm at 3.94-3.4 cents while sterling was up 1-8 cent to $3.08-1.8.

WORLD IS NERVOUS OVER U. S. DOLLAR

New York, May 3.—(AP)—Foreign money markets, which have shown evidence of nervous chills whenever the suggestion of possible inflation of American currency is mentioned today began selling dollars and putting their dollar balances into other currencies.

Foreign exchange authorities stated that the movement, which was widespread, began in Europe and later extended to the New York market. They said the shifting of international funds from America to foreign centers was the distinct reaction of the world to the passage of the Imperial Potentate Houston Greeted by Atlanta Shriners

Noble Thomas J. Houston (left), Imperial potentate of the Shrine in North America, and Noble Richard N. Fickett Jr., illustrious potentate of Yaarab temple. The Imperial official was a visitor in Atlanta Tuesday and was entertained at the Shrine mosque.

Atlanta Shriners Tuesday welcomed to the local oasis the chief of the ancient and mystic order of the Shrine in North America, Imperial Potentate Thomas J. Houston, of Chicago, who arrived in this city on a brief visit en route to Tampa, Fla., where he and his secretary, Past Potentate Harry E. Sharrar, of Oak Temple, Hammond, Ind., will be guests of Egyptian temple.

Presiding over the reception and entertainment was illustrious Potentate Richard N. Fickett Jr. and the highlight of the official visit was the inspiring address delivered by the visiting imperial potentate on the subject, "The Shrine in North America."

The address was followed by a buffet supper in the mosque.

Met in Chattanooga, Past Potentate Houston was escorted by Potentate to Atlanta by Past Potentate Henry C. Heinz and Tom C. Law, and upon his arrival here the high official and his secretary were entertained at luncheon at the Atlanta-Biltmore hotel by the officers of the Atlanta Jesters Court, following which a five-course of golfers was formed to play over the course of the Druid Hills Golf Club.

Dinner was served at the Atlanta Athletic Club at 6:30 o'clock to the visiting imperial officials, at which the Atlanta Jesters Court, host, members of the Yaarab temple divan being invited to make up the party.

The imperial potentate and his secretary left Atlanta late Tuesday night for Tampa.

As sent to the senate by the overwhelming vote of 318 to 67, the bill carried savings liberally estimated by the economy committee at $42,000,000, as compared to the $210,000,000 it proposed to cut from government costs.

It was tucked onto the $200,000,000 legislative supply bill as a rider, after having been beaten and battered by a roaring and revolting house for nearly a week.

The measure contained numerous suggestions submitted to the house economy committee by President Hoover in his "national economy bill," including the Hoover staggering plan of employment and the proposed decrease in veterans' benefits, were swept out by the powerful coalition.

Noisy and difficult to control, the insurgent-dominated house delivered its final wrecking blow to the measure Tuesday.

Long Loses Committee Posts, Raps Robinson Power Link

WASHINGTON, May 3.—(AP)—Senate Democrats rallying behind the leadership of Robinson, of Arkansas, today stripped his critics, Huey P. Long, of committee assignments, but the rebellious Louisiana came back with a fresh attack and demanded new committee jobs to others.

The Democratic steering committee accepted the resignations which Long offered last week in a one-man revolt against Robinson's leadership and gave his committee jobs to others.

Later the belligerent Long told the senate he expected the democratic caucus to give him new committee assignments. He presented to the senate what he said was a list of public utility and power companies represented by Robinson's law firm.

The list taken from a 1930 legal directory said the firm of Robinson, House and Moses is attorneys for the Arkansas Power & Light Co., the Louisiana Power & Light Co., the Mississippi Power & Light Co., the Southern Power & Light Co. and a number of other railroad and utility companies.

Robinson announced the action of

Alabama's 24 Votes Are Won by Roosevelt; California Count Slow

First Coast Returns Are From Los Angeles Where Garner Strength Is Admittedly Great; Smith Is Second.

PORTER IN LEAD
IN RECALL FIGHT
LOS ANGELES, May 3.—(AP)—Mayor John C. Porter was leading in the fight against his recall tonight on the face of incomplete returns from 448 scattered precincts in the city, the vote being: For recall 42,026, against recall 44,805.

By the Associated Press.

The forces of Franklin D. Roosevelt held a precarious lead on the democratic side of California's presidential primary returns early today with Alfred E. Smith running a close second and with many votes yet to be counted in Los Angeles county, the stronghold of Speaker John N. Garner. Returns from 3,140 precincts complete, out of 10,271, gave the New York governor 51,858; Smith 49,253 and Garner 44,391.

These returns included 900 of San Francisco's 1,050 precincts where Smith ran strong, but only 232 precincts out of the 3,278 in Los Angeles county, where the Texan was getting a clear majority over his two opponents.

In Los Angeles county, which contains almost one-third of the precincts in the state, Garner had a long lead. Incomplete returns from the county, not listed in the returns from the state-at-large because the count in very few of the boxes had been finished, showed Smith leading Roosevelt 25,038 and Smith, 24,991 early today. It was expected that Los Angeles county would poll approximately a quarter of a million votes.

President Hoover, whose leadership on the republican side of the ticket was not contested, received 42,427 votes in 783 precincts. This exceeded the combined total of votes given the three democratic contenders. His supporters had urged that he be given a generous "confidence vote."

Tabulation of the returns was slow and a decision was not expected until sometime later in the day. Forty-four votes, the sixth largest block in the national convention, were at stake.

These returns bore out predictions that the Texan would run strong in the heavily populated districts of Los Angeles county, where he was aided by the active support of William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, and by the strong opposition to the state oil control referendum, which was losing and which was opposed by McAdoo.

It had been expected that Smith would poll his strongest vote in the two large cities of the state, and that Roosevelt would lead out-state. The complete returns from scattered precincts in 33 of the state's 58 counties, placed Roosevelt in the lead but he was closely pressed by Smith.

In Alabama the Roosevelt slate was leading by almost 1 to 1 and his victory was conceded.

Meanwhile, Governor Roosevelt took South Dakota's 10 delegates by default, and his slate of delegates-at-large in Alabama was leading an unopposed group not unfriendly to him but opposed to Smith by nearly

G. O. P. WILL OFFER U. S. ARMS REPEL SENATE CANDIDATE

Republican Aspirant for House Also To Be Named by State Committee.

Georgia republicans will offer a candidate for the United States senate, at least one candidate for the national house of representatives and "probably" a candidate for governor in the general election this fall.

James W. Adams, national committeeman, said this decision was reached at a meeting of the state central committee Tuesday. The recent state convention directed that the committee consider the advisability of putting out a full state ticket.

A candidate for the lower house of congress and the name of Robert Ramspeck, of the fifth district, and the name of Josiah T. Rose, collector of internal revenue, is being advanced.

Arnold would not say definitely whether the G. O. P. would offer a candidate for governor or not. He said that this was under consideration and that he would announce the name of someone to oppose the democratic candidate this fall.

State headquarters have been opened here and it is probable that an intensive drive will be made to elect a senator. The state committee has not determined whether the candidate will offer for the Harris vacancy or oppose Senator Walter F. George.

It is the first time the republicans have seriously considered offering opposition to major offices and it is likely, however, that the recommendation of the convention as to a full ticket will be followed.

Scarface Al 'Taken for Ride' To Drear Routine of Pen Life

Al Capone was "taken for a ride" by federal officers Tuesday night as he started his trip to the Atlanta penitentiary, where he will serve an 11-year term for failure to pay income taxes. The notorious gang leader is shown in this Associated Press telephoto as he was led into an automobile at the Cook county jail in Chicago, en route to the station to board a train for Atlanta.

Scarface Al Capone, most notorious of gangland chiefs and lord of the liquor and vice industry of Chicago, today is en route to his new home at the Atlanta federal penitentiary.

A special car bringing him and a heavy guard is scheduled to arrive at 6:30 o'clock tonight.

He is slated to serve 11 years for evasion of income tax laws, but is subject to parole in seven years and four months under the federal prison rules allowing one-third time off for "good time."

Although officials at the Atlanta penitentiary, where he is scheduled to be incarcerated, were silent about his coming and even denied any knowledge of the decision to send him to Atlanta, the 3,100 other prisoners at the institution were agog with excitement.

When Capone walks into the prison he will be the only "big shot"

CHANGE IS MADE TO KEEP HOODLUM AWAY FROM AIDES

Lieutenants Are at Leavenworth, Brother at McNeil's, While Incarceration Here Will Separate Him From Henchmen.

CHICAGO, May 3.—(AP)—Closely flanked by half a dozen federal agents, Al Capone was hurried from his country jail cell late tonight, and started on his way to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta.

The gang leader, who must serve an 11-year sentence for income tax evasion, was escorted from the jail entrance to one of a caravan of police cars waiting at the curb.

The convoy sped swiftly through Loop streets to the Dearborn Street station, arriving a full hour before the departure of the Atlanta-bound train.

Capone, smiling broadly, was whisked into the Atlanta car.

"I am glad to get started," were the gang leader's only words.

Tailored Clothes.

As on all his public appearances, Capone was impeccably attired. His dark blue overcoat reflected the tailors' iron, and a wide-brimmed hat framed his broad face.

In contrast to a sullen, savage mood seen before being taken from his jail cell, the massive, dethroned gang leader appeared cheerful as he began his journey to 11 years of confinement.

He posed for photographers cheerfully until the train started, when he was a battery of flashlights exploded.

Federal officials were so successful in shrouding the departure of the gangster with secrecy, that few persons were on hand when he arrived at the station.

Rehearsed in their roles to prevent any last-minute efforts to free Capone, the police and federal officers swung swiftly into an impregnable escort.

He entered the police car in company with Victor Morici, alleged automobile thief, who was being taken to Tampa, Fla., for trial.

On the train with Capone was United States Marshal H. C. W. Laubheimer, Deputy Marshals Thompson, Nordstedt, Glaser, O'Neill and Clark, and two railroad detectives. The party had reserved six lower berths and a separate bedroom.

The train was permitted to stop at Danville, Ill.; Evansville, Ind.; and Terre Haute, Ind. It was due in Atlanta at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Capone was permitted to take only $10 with him, and a limited supply of his $30 shirts and $10 neckties.

He had made all preparations for his departure in the day. His mother, Mrs. Teresa Capone; his wife, Mae; his son, Alphonse Jr., 11; his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Martorelli, and a younger son, Matthew, all said good-bye to him in a brief farewell in his cell.

JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF STATE SCORED IN NEGRO'S DEATH

Judge Fortson Attacks Husband and Father of Ax-Slaying Victims Denied Bail.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 3.—(AP)—Basic defects in Georgia's judicial system begin in organization of the courts, Judge Fortson said, adding that there was no unity and control, no administrative head and no supervision of the work of any judge.

Another principal trouble, he continued, lies in the expenditure of time and money required to conclude any case.

Wrestler Goes on Rampage, Kayoes Foe, Attacks Referee

BY JIMMY JONES.
The arm of the law Tuesday night ended a wrestling match between Pat O'Shocker, red-headed Irishman from Salt Lake City and Paul Jones, of Houston, when the two men ceased wrestling after each had won one fall and suddenly started slugging it out in toe-to-toe fashion.

Several policemen jumped into the ring and stopped the affair after O'Shocker had hurled the referee, Doc Lanford, through the ropes and had knocked Jones down with a barrage of rights and lefts to the head.

The two men were wrestling away in thoroughly orthodox fashion when O'Shocker, who charged that the Texan had thrust a finger in his eyes, tossed the referee aside and landed a right flush on Jones' jaw, sending a crowd of some 4,500 stampeding about the ring in excitement.

The cowboy started, went down on all fours and tried to rise, only to be met by another rush from the infuriated Irishman. The law took a hand here and led O'Shocker, who was bleeding profusely about the mouth from a back-handed blow landed by Jones, to his corner. The cowboy had little time to do anything but ward off O'Shocker.

Jones, disheveled and feeling gingerly of his feet to see if they were all there, leaned against the ropes. The match had been exceedingly rough since its beginning.

The Atlanta boxing commission immediately disqualified O'Shocker and suspended him indefinitely, Jones being awarded the match.

O'Shocker said after he reached his dressing room. The Irishman, who was still indignant, charged that the Texan had added insult to injury, after pulling his hair several times, by rudely sticking a finger in his eye. It was the first demonstration of its kind in Atlanta since Stanley Stasiak, a giant Pole, now dead, figured in a near riot at the auditorium several years ago when John Contos was the promoter here.

SENATORS SCORN 4 PER CENT BEER

Bill To Permit Manufacture Adversely Reported by Committee.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—(AP)—Sharply conflicting views on the effect of legislating beer were presented to the senate today as its manufactures committee reported adversely a bill to permit manufacture of 4 per cent beer.

A committee majority of seven asserted in a report prepared by Senator Hatfield, republican, West Virginia, that it would "add to enforcement difficulties and retard rather than accelerate economic recovery."

A minority of four, in a statement presented by Senator Metcalf, republican, Rhode Island, said beer would promote temperance and provide revenue and employment. It decried prohibition, saying its effect "seems to have been the driving of people to hard liquors with a resultant increase in drunkenness, deaths from alcoholism and general lawlessness."

The majority opposing the beer bill comprised Senators Hatfield, McNary, republican, Oregon; Goldsborough, republican, Maryland; Cutting, republican, New Mexico; Smith, democrat, South Carolina; Sheppard, democrat, Texas, and Costigan, democrat, Colorado.

The minority consisted of Senators Metcalf, Barbour, republican, New Jersey; Bulkeley, democrat, Ohio, and La Follette, republican, Wisconsin.

"There is no reason," the majority report said "for a change in the law which would satisfy neither the opponents nor the supporters of the 18th amendment, which would be of doubtful constitutional validity, and which would divert a large share of the purchasing power of the people from the production of essential industries to that of a non-essential, with the result that economic recovery would be retarded rather than promoted."

The minority report said: "It is evident that prohibition has not only failed to decrease drunkenness but that arrests for intoxication have been steadily increasing until they have reached the highest point in American history. . . .

"The 18th amendment and the Volstead act have wrought terrible havoc in the dignity of law and the respect for its existence," the report continued.

"Immediate employment would be given to a minimum of 500,000 persons and possibly more than 1,000,000 persons within a brief period, following passage of the bill."

Revenue to be derived from beer was estimated by the minority as high as $1,100,000,000 annually.

Two Opposition Moves Defeated by De Valera

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, May 3.—(AP)—The republican government of the Irish Free State tonight threw out two opposition amendments in the dail eireann which would have modified its bill to abolish the oath of allegiance to the British crown.

The first amendment, proposed by Deputy MacDermot, which would merely have altered the wording of the oath, was disallowed by the speaker on the ground it introduced "extraneous matter outside the scope of the bill."

President Eamon de Valera turned aside a proposed amendment of Ernest Blyther, finance minister in the late government of William T. Cosgrave, which would have retained the oath but made it optional.

PRAISES OF BEER SUNG IN VERSE BEFORE SENATORS

WASHINGTON, May 3.—(AP)—A bit of verse featuring beer was read in the senate today at the instance of Senator Bingham, republican, Connecticut.

Bearing the name of "Forrest Rutherford" as author, it read in part: "Beer will balance the budget, Beer will bring bacon and bread, Beer will brighten the beggar, Beer will bring him a bed, Beer will banish the bigot, Beer will balance and blind, Beer will benefit body, Beer ever befriended mankind."

When the clerk finished reading, Senator Robinson, democrat, Arkansas, inquired, "Who called that poetry?"

Senator Frazier, republican, North Dakota, said that when he wielded the floor for the reading he "didn't know it was that kind of a poem."

SPAIN'S PREMIER SEEKS TO MODERNIZE ARMY

MADRID, May 3.—(AP)—A decree intended to further modernize the Spanish army and make it more efficient through widespread changes in the method of selecting and promoting officers was submitted to the national assembly for its approval today by Premier Manuel Azana.

The premier, who also is minister of war, told the assembly that recent reforms in the army had eliminated a "useless" portion and sought to better the pay and living conditions of private and non-commissioned officers. It was now necessary, he said, to devote attention to the officers.

BLACKWOOD HONORED AT NEW YORK DINNER

NEW YORK, May 3.—(AP)—Governor Ibra G. Blackwood, of South Carolina, was guest of honor tonight at a private dinner given by Colonel Leopold Philipp, his aide-de-camp in the national guard of South Carolina.

Governor Blackwood, who came here to speak at a bi-centennial inaugural banquet last Saturday was presented with a scroll signed by the guests, among whom were Mayor Walker, Tammany Leader John F. Curry, James A. Farley, state democratic chairman; Judge Alvin Lumpkin, of South Carolina; Colonel Winton M. Blount, of Alabama, and Senator Richard M. Jefferies, of South Carolina.

JURY VIEWS NOTES IN AUTHOR'S DEATH

First-Degree Murder Indictment Asked Against British Aviator.

MIAMI, Fla., May 3.—(P)—Two purported suicide notes of Haden Clarke, 26-year-old author, were apparently under scrutiny of the Dade county grand jury tonight as State Attorney N. Vernon Hawthorne sought a first-degree murder indictment charging Captain W. N. Lancaster, British flyer, with the mysterious shooting of Clarke.

Hawthorne charged Lancaster with murder in a warrant issued last night, after he said the flyer confessed to the killing. The warrant, which was signed by the grand jury, charged that Lancaster, while flying over Miami, Fla., on April 21, shot and killed Clarke, who was in the cockpit of the plane.

The flyer last night declared his innocence of the shooting, and said that he had been present at the scene, but that he had not fired the shot. He said that he had been in the cockpit of the plane, and that he had been shot by a bullet which had come from the ground.

Hawthorne quoted him as saying he wrote the two notes on Clarke's typewriter after he awoke to find the author unconscious from a bullet wound. Lancaster tried to arouse Clarke, but failed, signed them himself, the state attorney said.

Congress Is Asked To Ban U. S. Pay for Solons' Kin

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.
WASHINGTON, May 3.—(UP)—A second blow at the widespread employment of relatives by senators and congressmen was struck today.

Representative J. R. Mitchell, democrat, Tennessee, introduced a bill to prohibit this practice. He accompanied this action with a statement declaring the public would never believe that the appointment of a near relative was a merit alone.

He said the secrecy surrounding the practice was "prima facie evidence of fraud, crookedness and corruption of the rank kind."

Mitchell said that even a congressman cannot find out who is on the pay roll of other members.

"Let us begin by having the clerk of the house keep his books open so all the taxpayers and their representatives can know who is eating up their substance here on Capitol Hill," he said.

He challenged congressmen to take the stump and say they would appoint relatives to clerkships if elected.

Last week the House of Representatives, in a committee report, recommended that the House of Representatives should have a committee to investigate the practice of appointing relatives to clerkships.

Previously Speaker Garner, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, senator democratic leader, and numerous others were reported as having relatives on the pay roll, some of whom worked here and some of whom were "contact men."

Representative Mitchell said he did not expect his anti-nepotism bill to pass, "because there are too many affected by it."

It provides it shall be unlawful for any member of congress to appoint to any legislative position any person re-

Holland. As a result, the currencies of all those nations were quoted above the gold export point—or that price at which it is cheaper to ship gold from New York in payment of foreign obligations than to buy the currencies of those nations with American money.

The currencies of Belgium and Holland went to new high prices for the year. The Dutch guilder, a gold currency, was conspicuously strong.

Other foreign currencies reported heavy shifting of balances to Holland. The guilder closed at 40.58 cents for cable transfer, .08 of a cent off.

Other foreign currencies which are well cemented to a gold standard showed strength at the cost of the dollar. Belgian francs advanced .03 of a cent to 14.05 cents. French francs were up 7-16 point to 3.94 3/4 cents, reversing the franc's recent downturn and again putting it above the gold point. Swiss francs also joined the upward procession.

Only in London did the dollar appear to have steadfast friends who declined to harbor thoughts of inflation. The dollar and the pound sterling closed the day at prices unchanged from the previous close.

For cable transfers. Private banking advices indicated that the British government, which recently created a large stabilization fund of sterling, had been liberal sellers of sterling throughout the day.

lated to him or to any other member of congress. A fine of $1,000 to $10,000 and forfeiture of office is provided. The bill follows the outline of similar laws in Mississippi, Nevada, New Mexico and some other states.

Members at present are allowed $5,000, to be divided between two clerks, neither of whom can draw more than $2,500 a year.

"The congressman appoints some member of his family, his wife, daughter, or son is placed on the pay roll and the monthly salary goes into the family treasury or into the member's own pocket, less the small amount paid to the working secretary who is usually underpaid and overworked as well."

"The congressman is known upon the pay roll. When they are carried on the pay roll, they are forced to turn over the major portion of their salary to the congressman or some member of his family."

"Sometimes the daughter or the son is educated in the schools here and then travels abroad, carrying the money while drawing the taxpayer's money from the treasury and doing nothing whatever to earn it."

"They frequently do not come to the office where they are supposed to be employed, but instead they join so-called society in the city and begin pink tea entertainment and begin to play politics back in the district to promote the selfish ambitions of their congressmen, and it is altogether personal, at the expense of the best interests of the people who pay the bills."

"The people have a right to expect that their money be otherwise expended than in a continuation of this character of graft and selfishness."

Mitchell linked his situation directly with the unemployment throughout the country, saying:

"I wonder how many members of the present congress who have their wives, daughters or sons on the pay roll as clerks or secretaries have turned back home to their constituents and advised them that there were no jobs here in Washington to be had."

"I challenge any one of the members of congress who are now engaged in the nefarious practice to say in public that he expects to fill his office with his kin and that he expects to see that they draw salaries from the federal government out of his constituents' hard earned money."

JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF STATE SCORED

litigation, with rules of procedure so complex that many rights are delayed and defeated without regard to their merits.

Too much politics and too little security of tenure attended the judicial office, he said.

Security of tenure, Judge Fortson said, can be remedied only by constitutional amendment. He offered the opinion that complete reorganization of the judicial system would be easier as well as more effective than a series of minor changes.

Some improvement, he granted, could be achieved by legislative action. He listed in that category reduction of the number of superior court circuits, to be accompanied by an adjustment of the number of judges in each and equalization of their work; uniform laws applying to city courts, and simplification of the rules of pleading, practice and procedure.

Quasi-judicial bodies, such as the interstate commerce commission, federal trade commission and state industrial commission are multiplying, the jurist said, because they have adopted rules of procedure simple enough for the layman to understand and employ.

Dr. Kraus, professor of international law and diplomacy at the German University, emphasized in his discussion of reparations that "unable to pay does not mean unwilling." He expressed regret that the Germans have been confused in political conversations.

Even Adolf Hitler and his "nazis" are decidedly in favor of payment to the country's utmost capacity on private obligations, the professor said.

He sketched the recent history of Germany, saying she had been stripped of her position as a world power and "is struggling to regain her equality."

"This inequality is most noticeable in the question of disarmament." He said the foreign relations of the reich involved only a few questions:

"First, the recovery of a status of complete equality, a readjustment with her many old and new neighbors, her relations to the League of Nations, the protection of millions of German minorities in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Denmark and last but not least, questions of international finance."

Dr. Kraus said the Treaty of Versailles "most thoroughly disarmed" Germany with provisions which "leading statesmen of the former allies have repeatedly acknowledged were intended as a preparation for a general disarmament, therefore dictated to Germany conditionally and accepted conditionally by Germany."

"Germany has a right to demand that the other signatory powers of the Treaty of Versailles also disarm in the measure and according to the direct methods provided by the Versailles treaty."

Following Judge Fortson's address the afternoon round-table was thrown open for general discussion.

Senator E. M. Williams, of Monroe, a member of the senate committee, said the judicial branch was the most important division of the state government and "no division at present is in greater need of reform."

He called efficiency, uniformity and economy the three most important characteristics of a good judicial system.

Children Are Bondsmen For Arkansas Father

BLITHEVILLE, Ark., May 3.—(P)—Jim Montgomery, today was at liberty under a bond fixed at 1 cent. His three motherless children, the oldest 7 years of age, are his bondsmen.

Officers said they found a still on Montgomery's place. They couldn't take the children to jail and couldn't leave them at their home by themselves.

The magistrate instructed the children to keep the father at home pending his hearing, and fived the penny bond.

SAVINGS REDUCED IN ECONOMY BILL

ure today. It downed, 211 to 119, a bill to reduce the federal debt by $1,717,000 through a reduction in benefits to veterans. It set up instead a joint congressional committee of the two houses to study the report to the next session of congress a program to revamp veterans' legislation.

The slashing was completed, McDuffie, who voted against the measure, said:

"I felt I could not vote for the bill which had been emasculated and destroyed."

"The action of the house goes to prove that organized minorities, propaganda and bureaucrats have control of this government, and that representative government is dead. It is high time for the taxpayers to organize and elect representatives to reduce the cost of government."

McDuffie and Representative Douglas, of Arizona, democratic member of the senate, said the measure was a "product of circumstance and environment."

A large portion of these, he asserted, are "not criminally minded" but are "products of circumstance and environment."

The release of prisoners on probation, or on parole, were accompanied by adequate and proper supervision," he continued, "has been demonstrated that daily occurrences demonstrated criminal conduct than any other method."

this fiscal year stood at $2,334,000,000.

With the revenue bill almost completed tonight, the finance committee was admittedly looking about for more sources of funds. Imports duties on rubber, coffee, tea and cocoa were under serious consideration.

The New York Stock Exchange has contended that the house stock tax rate would put it out of business. Secretary Mills recommended the four-cents-a-share rate which was adopted on motion of Senator Gore, democrat, Oklahoma.

The Gore motion carried 12 to 4. The lineup of the committee on this vote was reported as: For, Smith, Watson, Reed, Shortridge, Couzens.

AMERICAN AIRWAYS MOVES HEADQUARTERS

NEW YORK, May 3.—(P)—The Dallas (Texas) base of American Airways, Inc., is the new operating headquarters for the southern halves of two north-south lines, company officials have announced.

Heretofore the Chicago-New Orleans and the Cleveland-Fort Worth lines have been operated entirely from the St. Louis headquarters. Yesterday the St. Louis-New Orleans and Nashville-Fort Worth divisions of these routes were put under control of Dallas operations.

The change is "principally one of bookkeeping," it was explained, to divide operating responsibilities. Passenger and plane schedules at all intermediate and main bases will remain the same.

WICKERSHAM RAPS U. S. PENAL SYSTEM

Says Paroles and Not Incarceration Offer Best Check on Crime.

NEW YORK, May 3.—(P)—Upon society's ability to surround children "with healthy and harmless outlets for their natural spirits," George W. Wickersham said tonight rests the root of the nation's crime problem.

Warning that "whatever the outcome of the individual toward society, the crimes of organized society towards the individual are infinitely greater," he urged society to "extend a willing and helping hand to the boy or man seriously determined to come back."

Speaking before the Religious Education Association, Mr. Wickersham cited from the various reports of the president's commission on law observance and enforcement, of which he was chairman, to show that "the majority of the 11,000 police jails and lock-ups are literally a public nuisance and are unfit for the purposes for which they are designed."

Lack of statistics, he said, made it impossible to tell whether crime was increasing in this country but added that daily occurrences demonstrated "that some of the boldest and most brutal offenses are committed by very young men and women."

A portion of these, he asserted, are "not criminally minded" but are "products of circumstance and environment."

The release of prisoners on probation, or on parole, were accompanied by adequate and proper supervision," he continued, "has been demonstrated that daily occurrences demonstrated criminal conduct than any other method."

Police Halt Opening Of New Gotham Play

NEW YORK, May 3.—(P)—The premiere of the play, "Merry-Go-Round," a satire on New York city politics, was delayed tonight when five policemen stationed themselves in the lobby of the Aron theater and announced the show would not open.

Captain Amander O. Hayes said the theater management had not filed their application for renewal of the house license until today, too late for tonight's performance.

Barnard J. Goldstein, the owner, said the license was being held up because the play ridiculed local politicians.

whom he fatally shot when he said he saw the negro in the home with two stolen pistols in his hands.

Told he was dying, the negro insisted that he was picked up on a downtown corner by Puryear and taken to the home ostensibly to remove some whisky. He said when he got there, Puryear shot him, and he did not know "what happened inside."

A coroner's jury this morning reported the attacks were made by "a person as yet unknown."

Although Puryear repeatedly denounced Jamison's story as a "horrible lie," Police Captain Frank Gilson testified at the inquest that the negro told his story three times "and never varied," and "had no criminal record in the past."

Gilson said Puryear accused the negro of stealing two pistols, $60 in currency and a watch, but that none of the property was found on the negro when he was arrested less than a block from the Puryear home. The officer said the watch afterwards was found in Puryear's pockets.

Gilson also said Puryear told him he went to his garage at 2 a. m. the morning of the slayings, and took one drink of liquor.

11 PERSONS ARE HELD IN MISSISSIPPI RAID

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 3.—(P)—Federal prohibition officers here today announced the arrest of 11 men, including a police officer, in a surprise raid at Holly Springs, Miss., last night. The officers said they have been running 800 gallons of whisky into Memphis auto works.

The Next Best Thing to Eating REAL Grapes

Ever visit a vineyard early in the morning, when the dew still lingered on the great clusters of purple grapes? Ever squeeze them between your lips and experience the genuine thrill of that first delicious wine-like flavor? Nowhere else have you seemed to quite match that tang—until the New NuGrape came.

This unusual new drink, by a process exclusively its own, has succeeded in imprisoning the elusive tang of the dew-wet grape, just as it is plucked from the vineyard in season—clear, tingling with life, and perfumed. Yes—you can catch the bouquet of it the moment the bottle is opened. For that vivid moment, you are "In a Grape Arbor."

Try this delicious carbonated beverage today. It's now on sale everywhere for 5c.

'SCARFACE' AL TO ENTER ATLANTA PRISON TODAY

tions and his Bertillon measurements and fingerprints will be made. His civilian clothes will be tagged and placed in the regular storage life until his release and he will not be permitted to wear them again as long as he is at the pen.

Following the complete physical examination, including blood tests, he will be kept in a special isolation ward provided for new arrivals for from three to four weeks to see if they have any contagious disease. If any develop he will begin treatment at once; if not, he will be assigned to some duty.

Capone can expect no favors from local prison officials. A. C. Aderhold, warden, and Schoen are noted for their impartial treatment of prisoners, and they will take no chances of being criticized for granting "favors" to Capone.

Once the prison's gates close behind him, the doings of Al Capone will be but a memory to the American public. For the warden's lips are sealed when information regarding individual prisoners is sought. The warden refers all inquiries to the department of justice at Washington and information is not being dispensed.

Possibly no penitentiary in the world is better guarded than this one. "Pill boxes," armed with machine guns, are strategically located about the grounds; lookouts dot the walls; twice-guarded entrances which lock visitors in as firmly as inmates, are the invariable rule. A few hundred yards distant, on the penitentiary preserve, is located the warden's private home.

The whole establishment, recently was equipped with the absolutely last word in automatic, electric control and emergency riot call. Any attempt to "deliver" Al Capone, or anyone else, would meet the fate of the Germans at Verdun.

Capone is probably the best-known of America's underworld, and he will constantly be under the watchful eye of the government. Capone can expect to be assigned either to the laundry or the tailor shop—and that under the watchful eye of a guard instructed to keep him in view at all times.

Where Capone Will Be 'At Home' for Many Years

Scarface Al Capone, Chicago gangster, with the sardonic smile characteristic of him in the heyday of his success as the lord of the underworld, and the administration building and the west cell blocks of the Atlanta federal penitentiary, where the racketeer begins life as a convict tonight.

He is regarded as probably the most hazardous prisoner who ever entered the Atlanta institution, despite its more than 20 years of existence. When he proves his mettle, and it is believed he warrants consideration because of his good behavior, he may be assigned to some clerical job or to the library, where he may have the privilege of studying and reading.

But at first he might as well make up his mind that he is a marked man among the army of forgotten men who inhabit the institution. He will undergo inconveniences. He will eat, sleep, bathe and even write the few letters he is permitted to send to the outside world under the regular prison routine.

Capone is under indictment also for violation of the federal prohibition laws, but there seems now to be little probability that he will be haled before the bar of justice on those counts, although he piled an unlawful trade and turned millions of dollars into gangland coffers through his operations during his 10 years' undisputed reign in Chicago. The government, failing to find him guilty of at 11:30 p. m., central daylight time.

Before it departed, federal agents riding with Capone revealed how he escaped being manacled—his most fervid request.

"I'd hate to wear those bracelets worse than anything else," he quoted as saying. "I'll be good—I'll even pose for the newspaper photographers, if you don't put them on."

The guards acquiesced, and Capone was taken to the Atlanta penitentiary, where he was housed in a cell with other local

Capone's New Rock-Bound 'Home' Has Housed Many Noted Criminals

When Alphonse Capone, alias Al Brown, arrives at the federal prison from Chicago tonight and "checks in," he will find himself amid surroundings once "home" to his many other rackets. And like others who have gone before him, "Scarface" will be housed about by a man who has watched over many "big shots" in his time, Warden A. C. Aderhold.

Capone may find himself in the cell once occupied by Thomas V. Miller, a former alien property custodian, or he may be in the cell used by Earl Carroll, Broadway theatrical producer, or still again he may call home the same six-by-nine "suite" used by Eugene V. Debs, once socialist candidate for president of the United States.

But Capone's name will be forgotten for a long, long time. Officially he will be known as a number and likewise he'll be known by number to his fellow prisoners, who usually hail their comrades by the last two or three numbers of the official number assigned by the warden.

It may be hard on Capone but it won't be any harder than it was on Miller, Carroll and Debs, and anyway, Capone, who always has had a bodyguard, will continue to have that bodyguard. But the bodyguard here will be seeing that Al doesn't go places instead of seeing that folks don't get to him.

The gangland overlord will be one of numerous famous criminal personages once confined in the federal prison here.

Besides the three named above there were A. E. Sartain, who once was warden of the institution and was convicted of selling favors to prisoners; George Rensu, the first of the big bootleggers; Roy Gardner, western train robber and all-around bad man; Gerald Chapman and George "Dutch" Schumacher, who were convicted of using the mails to defraud; Marcus Garvey, self-styled Ethiopian emperor; Mannie Kessler, big-time

RUSSELL ADDRESSES C. OF C. AT ALBANY

ALBANY, Ga., May 3.—(P)—Governor Richard B. Russell Jr., of Georgia, suggested "a deeper appreciation of need for lessening the burden of taxation as a possible benefit from the international economic reversion in a speech before the Albany Chamber of Commerce tonight.

He gave an account of his stewardship and described economies and efforts to obtain efficient government in the state.

Georgia's governmental costs, the governor said, are below the per capita national average. He did not refer to his entrance in the race to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator William J. Harris.

H. T. McIntosh, editor of the Albany Herald, presided at the meeting. He introduced Delacey Allen, close personal friend of Governor Russell, who in turn introduced the governor. Those in attendance included Lawrence Camp, chairman of the state democratic executive committee, and John I. Kelley, of Lawrenceville, who is an announced candidate for governor.

Governor Russell left after the dinner Monday night, where he and Governor Carlton, of Florida, will share honors at a gathering of farmers, livestock men and agricultural leaders, a celebration of Cattle Feeders' Day.

1,950 precincts gave: Green 28,570 votes; Gunderson 76,161.

Senator Peter Norbeck was running away with the republican nomination contest. Returns from 588 precincts gave him 34,575 votes to Harry Brown's 14,553.

The fight in the democratic ranks for the gubernatorial nomination continued close, with L. E. Corey holding a slight edge. Corey had a total of 5,704 votes in 325 precincts to Tom Berry's 5,624.

U. S. G. Cherry continued to lead Lewis U. Bicknell by a few hundred for the democratic senatorial nomination. Cherry received 3,583 votes in 300 precincts; Bicknell 3,109 and Sheafe 1,965.

The democrats ratified the Roosevelt victory for the state's 10 delegates.

Delegates favorable to President Hoover's candidacy continued to hold the republican nomination, or advanced anti-Hoover slate on the republican ticket.

With 248 precincts reporting, the regular Hoover delegates had 5,824 votes against 4,184 for the "progressive" slate. The count in this contest was proceeding slowly.

INDIANA PRIMARIES COUNT IS DELAYED INDIANAPOLIS, May 3.—(P)—Indiana voters, many of whom expressed themselves indirectly on the prohibition question in today's primary election by the support they gave wet or dry candidates, tonight awaited tabulation of their votes. Local contests slowed the count, however.

Incumbent congressmen in the fourth, sixth, eleventh and twelfth districts who voted against the Beck-Linthicum resolution for resubmission of the eighteenth amendment were opposed by strong candidates of wet beliefs.

The incumbents who watched the count of the votes are David Hogg, republican, fourth district; Fred Fur-

BOYKIN MAY ENTER GOVERNOR'S RACE

Solicitor-General Considering Running; Hardwick Possible Candidate.

A possibility that Solicitor-General John A. Boykin may become a candidate for governor and that former Governor Thomas W. Hardwick is wavering between entering the race for senator or governor engaged politically-minded persons in Georgia Tuesday.

Boykin himself issued a statement in which he said he was giving the matter of running for governor serious consideration. He emphasized, however, that he would not seek the governorship unless it is made to appear that he could be of greater service to the people in the executive office than as public prosecutor in Fulton county.

Hardwick outlined views. Hardwick issued a two-column statement from Augusta, in which he outlined his views on public matters and which he ended by stating:

"If the people of Georgia believe in the principles I have announced herein, and believe that I can serve them in the effort to accomplish these things, then I would consider it a matter of duty to offer my candidacy; otherwise I shall have none to submit."

Here last week, Hardwick told friends that he had no further political ambition. There were suggestions that he would run for governor or enter the senate race against Crisp and Russell. It was also suggested that he would tackle the senate seat against Senator Walter F. George and run on a wet platform.

Lewis Russell May Run. Boykin's statement had its repercussions both at the state capital and at the Fulton county courthouse. If he elects to join with a field that now has a dozen entries, actual and threatened, it is understood that Lewis Russell, an uncle of Governor Russell, who assisted in the management of the latter's successful primary campaign, will become a candidate for solicitor-general to succeed Boykin.

Boykin said in his statement: "This suggestion coming at a time when I had definitely decided to offer for re-election as solicitor-general, all that I can say at this time is that the suggestion will be given mature consideration. I will state, however,

Atlanta Kiwanians Observe Music and Cotton 'Weeks'; Chorus of School Children Sings; Mayor Key Is Speaker

Members of the Kiwanis Club shown on the lawn of the state capital Tuesday, where, attired in cotton suits, they joined Governor Russell in observing the observance of Cotton Week during the week of the 16th. Mayor James L. Key, representing the city, may be seen under no conditions will I offer for the governorship unless it be made to appear that I can be of greater service to the people. I wish to express my most hearty appreciation to those partial friends who have thought me worthy of this great honor."

Mell M. Stephenson, of Athens, definitely announced Tuesday that he would enter the race for comptroller general against William B. Harrison, incumbent.

WALKER'S ANNOUNCEMENT FOR FARM POST EXPECTED LOUISVILLE, Ga., May 3.—(AP)—Judge B. F. Walker, of Wrens, Ga., is expected to announce for commissioner of agriculture in a few days. He told his friends Tuesday that he would make a definite announcement soon.

Judge Walker is known as one of the best farmers of Jefferson county and is widely known. He is president of the bank at Gibson and has served in the state senate from this district. He was appointed to the superior court bench of the Toombs circuit by former Governor Joe Brown. He says that he has some "very definite ideas" about how the department of agriculture should be operated.

STURDIVANT-POOLE PEACE MOVE MADE

As Councilman G. Dan Bridges, chairman of the police committee and spokesman for a majority of the committee, Tuesday came to the defense of T. O. Sturdivant, newly-elected chief of police, Alderman Ed A. Gilliam, another committee member, sought peace between Sturdivant and A. Lamar Poole, first assistant chief, who is under charges.

Bridges held that Sturdivant is the only duly elected chief. His statement was in answer to complaints made Monday in council which tended to show that Captain A. J. Holcombe received three votes of the committee before Sturdivant was elected.

Gilliam explained the matter by saying "We were sparring, just feeling each other out, when Holcombe got the three votes before Sturdivant. Holcombe has eliminated himself from the argument by saying he is working with Sturdivant, that he recognizes him as chief and that he is not going to make any point of the fact that he got three votes before Sturdivant was declared elected."

Sturdivant had hoped to further the peace pact by proposing Monday day of a measure to abolish the chief of the detective bureau, explaining later that it would have paved the way for reinstatement of Poole before the court opens a hearing on legal action brought by Poole to escape another trial. His measure to effect this was tabled, but Gilliam kept working.

EMORY WILL GET DR. ELKIN PORTRAIT BY C. F. NAEGELE

An oil portrait of the retired Atlanta physician, Dr. W. S. Elkin, painted by Charles Frederick Naegle, will be presented by Mrs. W. S. Elkin to the Emory Medical school at the monthly staff meeting in the Wesleyan Memorial hospital auditorium at 7:15 o'clock Friday night.

Dr. C. W. Strickler, long an associate of Dr. Elkin, will deliver the presentation address. The portrait will later be hung in the lobby of the hospital. Dr. Elkin was dean of the Emory Medical school from 1908 to 1925, and also professor in tynecology there. The public is invited to attend the presentation of the portrait.

Pulitzer Award Elates Kaufman Cousins Here

Among Atlantans who were elated over the announcement Tuesday that George S. Kaufman and Morris Ryskind, musical comedy writers, had won the Pulitzer prize for the best original American play of the year, were Mrs. Julian Y. Boehm and her brother, A. L. Myers, of the Myers-Dickson Furniture Company. Both Mrs. Boehm and Mr. Myers are first cousins of Kaufman, co-author of the play.

"Of Thee I Sing," a current New York production, is a satire on national politics. Lyrics for it were written by Ira Gershwin, brother of George Gershwin, the composer. This is the first instance of a musical comedy winning this coveted award. The advisory board in making the award termed it as "unusual."

children from the Slaton school, fifth and sixth grade students, who sang several numbers. Mayor Key lauded the purpose of Cotton Week to be observed the week of May 16. Enrico Leide, chairman of the music committee, had charge of the program and introduced the Tea Time quartet, an instrumental ensemble of four young ladies under the direction of Mrs. Reynolds Clark.

At the conclusion of the program the majority of the club members, who were dressed in white cotton suits, adjourned to the state capital where they posed for sound moving pictures. These pictures will be shown at the Paramount Friday of this week, it was said.

Many 'Queens' Will Vie for Favors At Festival Honoring 'King Cotton'

ANDERSON, S. C., May 3.—(AP)—At least 12 cotton-growing states of the south and west are expected to be represented by "queens" at the annual festival here May 11 and 12 in honor of "King Cotton," the south's paramount crop.

The southern cotton festival is an outgrowth of plans to create interest in the wearing of cotton and for seeking further uses of the staple. Many states were represented last year and the event attracted wide interest.

Already the governors of six southern states have named beautiful girls to represent them this year. At least six others are expected to name "queens" for the event.

In addition, Mrs. George F. Bigby, chairman of the wear cotton movement here, has written the governors of every state and of American possessions asking them to send flags for display in the "parade of the queens," which is to be a colorful feature of the celebration.

The governors of South Carolina, Georgia, North Carolina, Alabama and Virginia are to be given special invitations to attend the festival in person. Plans also are being made to extend to Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, the leading candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, an invitation to attend.

Anderson already has assumed a businesslike attitude of preparation for the event which is expected to bring thousands of persons from all sections of the south and east.

SEN. GEORGE TO JOIN CAROLINA COUNTIES IGNORE TAX SALES LAW

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia, was today appointed a member of the important democratic senatorial steering committee, of which Joe Robinson, of Arkansas, is chairman.

Other members of the committee are Walsh, of Montana, vice chairman; Shepherd, of Texas, whip; Swanson, of Virginia; Kendrick, of Wyoming; Fletcher, of Florida; Ashurst, of Arizona; King, of Utah; Broussard, of Louisiana; McKellar, of Tennessee; Copeland, of New York; and Tydings, of Maryland.

Senator George was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his colleague, the late senator from Georgia, William J. Harris.

The steering committee formulates the policy of the minority in the upper chamber, and determines the precedence of bills and resolutions offered.

M'Donald To Undergo Second Eye Operation

LONDON, May 3.—(AP)—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald will undergo a second operation on his eyes Thursday afternoon. It was decided after a consultation of his physicians today.

Thursday's operation will be upon his right eye, to prevent a threat to his sight from glaucoma, the disease which was the cause of the former operation on his left eye four months ago.

He will preside over tomorrow's cabinet meeting, see King George in the afternoon and enter a nursing home in the West End tomorrow evening to prepare for the operation next day.

"Thor's Vitamin Put Me Back On My Feet In Ten Days' Time!"

"In two days after I started taking Thor's Vitamin Compound the terrible indigestion I suffered from was hardly noticeable. I could just feel myself getting better every day and, now, I don't know when I ever had a finer appetite and digestion, or felt better," states Fred W. Witherington, well-known resident of 970 Austin Ave., Atlanta. Mr. Witherington has represented Foote & Davies and other well-known firms in the Southeast for many years and has hundreds of friends.

"Nothing I ate seemed to digest right and I suffered agony from sharp, cutting pains in my stomach, was gradually going down, too, and to make matters worse, neither medicines nor dieting seemed to help me. Anyone who has been in this condition can appreciate how grateful I feel toward Thor's Vitamin Compound when I say that it put me back on my feet in ten days' time."

The indigestion, headaches, and nervousness are entirely gone. I am no longer troubled with constipation, and my whole system feels strengthened and recharged with vitality. I do not remember ever feeling in finer health. "Wonderful" is the only word that expresses the benefits I got from this new treatment."

Thor's Vitamin Compound often accomplishes results in a few days that formerly required weeks of treatment by other methods. This new scientific compound containing vitamins, iron, and copper, promotes an increase in the strengthening red corpuscles of the blood, corrects digestive disorders, and strengthens the nerves by improved circulation and increased metabolism. It enables the system to throw off impurities by quickly toning and strengthening the organs of elimination. If you are in a rundown, nervous condition, suffer from impoverished blood, lack of appetite, malnutrition, or acidity, and need a gentleness building up of strength, nerves and digestion, ask your druggist for Thor's Vitamin Compound today. GEORGIA PRODUCTS EXPOSITION TO OPEN WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Mayor Key Will Open Show; Music To Feature Programs

One of the most colorful displays of Georgia-made products ever assembled under one roof will be shown on Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock, when the Georgia Products Exposition will open at the city auditorium.

An address of welcome to exhibiting manufacturers and the general public by Mayor James L. Key will open the exposition, preparations for which have been completed.

The show will be featured by a continuous program of entertainment beginning with George Berkeley's orchestra on Wednesday night. An outstanding feature will be the concert and radio star, Miss Sadie Florence Lascelles, who has just returned from an engagement in Florida with the strawberry festival. On the opening night she will feature southern melodies. She is a former Atlanta girl.

In fact, music will be a feature of the exposition. Chairman Fred S. Creswell announced.

Music Feature.

"We will have a change of program every night and I can assure the Atlanta people that it will be entirely different from anything we have had in the past," Mr. Creswell said. "Thursday night will be feature night, when a number of added attractions will be put on. We are making every effort to make this year's exhibit a big success, and our entire program is being planned to please the public."

The opening address and entertainment will be given by Mayor James L. Key.

TERMITE METHOD TO BE SHOWN HERE

The menace of the commonly-termed white ant, or termite, an ant which undermines the foundation work of buildings, will be illustrated in a booth of the Bruce Terminix Company, at the Georgia products show, which opens Wednesday night at the auditorium.

This company, which manufactures exterminating fluid, gives a bond as a guarantee of its services. W. H. Sullivan, the company's manager, will give a free inspection of premises threatened by this pest.

The company uses the famous Termit method of treating wood. They impregnate the wood with a powerful chemical toxic. This kills the existing termites and prevents the return of them. The method used here not only stops the ravages of termites but also prevents further trouble.

They are adequately equipped to treat a home or building of any size. The equipment is portable.

Termites destroy thousands of dollars in property every year. "It will pay any one to investigate the scientific service offered by this dependable organization," Mr. Sullivan said. "Just call us over the phone or drop us a line and we can make all arrangements. There is no charge for the inspection of your property."

Schools of Decatur To Close Saturdays

Beginning with the fall term, the Decatur schools will have their weekly holiday on Saturday instead of Monday, the board of education of Decatur voted at a meeting Tuesday night.

For about 25 years the schools have been closed on Monday. In recent years there has been strong agitation in favor of the change and the board voted favorably on a petition of citizens Tuesday night.

Teachers for the term also were approved at the meeting Tuesday night.

LAST SERVICES TODAY FOR ROBERT N. REED

Final tribute will be paid at 10 o'clock this morning at the Sacred Heart church to Robert Neil Reed Sr., founder of the Reed Oil Company and prominent Atlanta, who died Monday at his home at 66 Huntington road. The Rev. Father Michael A. Cotter will conduct the services and interment will be in West View cemetery.

Members of the Rotary Club, the Capital City Club, the Atlanta Automobile Association, which he was a past president, and other organizations in which he held membership will form honorary escorts at the rites. Pallbearers will be Wiley Moore, Fred A. Hoyt, Henry B. Kennedy, T. T. Flagler, H. L. Lively and Harry S. Zobel.

JURY IS COMPLETED IN CAROLINA SLAYING

LAURENS, S. C., May 3.—(AP)—Selection of a jury was completed and two state witnesses testified today in the trial of three men, one a son of the victim for the murder of W. C. Ransom, 71-year-old Cross Hill business man, at his home last September.

The twelfth juror was chosen after three empanes of 36 each had been exhausted.

The first trial of Henry Ransom, 45, Latham and Eugene Crisp, brothers, all of Cross Hill, was declared a mistrial.

The first witnesses were Dr. C. B. Mills, of Cross Hill, who testified about the wounds of the former banker's body, and Sheriff Columbus Owens, of Laurens county, who told of arrests in the case.

Under the wording as adopted it resolved that the 18th amendment to the federal constitution should be referred by referendum to the people.

Last night the Florida Railway Surgeons Association passed the resolution favoring outright repeal.

The entire body of the railroad surgeons left the other text of the resolution intact, however, and went on record as criticizing the law as having "promoted the cause" during its 12 years of operation.

Man, 'Necking,' Speeding, Says Lady Was Wife

ELMSFORD, N. Y., May 3.—(UP)—Perhaps the last "jazz age" husband is Morris Horn, who was arrested here.

Horn, of Tarrytown, was charged with driving his Ford at 54 miles an hour and with simultaneous "necking."

"The lady was my wife, whom I love," defended Horn. "And I defy any of you Elmsford village trustees to drive my four-year-old Ford at 54 miles an hour."

Puzzled, the trustees reserved decision.

Sterchi Booth Shows Majestic

BY KATHLEEN WHEELER.

Not so many years ago many ships and cars were kept hot by heating natural ice from our northern states to our southern homes. Then a Florida conceived the idea of making artificial ice and the world has been changed.

However, we were always confronted with the same difficulty—when the temperature rose and the temperature was low, but as the ice melted the temperature rose and quite often foods requiring a low temperature spoiled.

The Sterchi booth is showing for the first time a large and required considerable space for installation. Then came the World War, and the need for a machine that would put in commission; there was no room for an ice machine, and so some engineer arose to the occasion and designed a machine that could be installed on the top of an ice box. This machine was waterproof, so that the box could sit out on the decks of the torpedo boats and the wash of the sea over the ship would do the ice-making unit no damage.

These small ice-making units were very successful at first, but engineers saw the possibility which they offered for domestic use began working on improvements, and in a comparatively short while what we now know as the electric refrigerator was put on the market.

These refrigerators were offered in various models, all of which have their good points. Then there was placed on the market an electric refrigerator that combined the best features of the others and many exclusive features. This refrigerator is the New Majestic designed by 10,000 American housewives. You are invited to inspect the New Majestic electric refrigerator on display in Sterchi's booth at the Georgia products show.

The New Majestic De Luxe models offer you BEAUTY. They are trim, compact, simple, with a broad, flat level top. Chromium alloy, hard-finished in beautiful white porcelain or Majestic never-to-be-marred white elasto.

Compressor has only three parts, with the quiet operation it implies. Factory sealed. Needs no attention. No kitchen repairs. Unit exchange is as easy and delivery means leaving it where you want it and slipping the plug in place.

As was the case with their radio, Majestic has put an electric refrigerator on the market which carries many desirable features. Inspect the New Majestic at the Sterchi's booth.

'BIRMINGHAM SPECIAL' TERMINUS IS CHANGED

Southern Railway System trains Nos. 29 and 30, now running between Birmingham, Washington and New York and using the Peachtree station exclusively at Atlanta, will be operated on the same schedule as the New York, beginning Sunday, May 15, and will run in and out of the terminal station as well as through the Peachtree station, Assistant General Passenger Agent E. E. Barry announced Tuesday.

At the same time that Nos. 29 and 30 are discontinued between Atlanta and Birmingham, the schedules of Nos. 25 and 26, local trains between Atlanta and Birmingham, will be adjusted so as to make connection with the new arrangement. No. 30 will leave the terminal station at 5:10 p.m., and No. 29 will arrive at the terminal station at 9 a.m. No. 25 will leave the terminal station at 9:10 a.m. and Birmingham 2:40 p.m. No. 26 will leave Birmingham at 11:40 a.m., Anniston 1:40 p.m. and reach Atlanta at 5 p.m.

Nos. 29 and 30 will continue to handle sleeping cars between Atlanta, Washington and New York, and from Richmond to Atlanta, southbound. The New York car will be handled through to Anniston, running on trains Nos. 25 and 26 between Atlanta and Anniston.

A local train out of Birmingham to replace Nos. 29 and 30, known as the "Birmingham special," which will make connections with northbound trains, will leave Birmingham at 11:30 a.m., arriving in Atlanta in time for the northbound connections, Birmingham officials said.

Southern Railway also announced that decision had been reached to retain permanently trains 17 and 18 from Atlanta to Washington and New York.

Fla. Medicos Favor Prohi Referendum

SARASOTA, Fla., May 3.—(AP)—The Florida Medical Association tonight adopted a resolution favoring a referendum on the 18th amendment.

The vote came after a clash over the phraseology in the resolution, which originally had been drafted to favor repeal of the prohibition amendment.

Under the wording as adopted it resolved that the 18th amendment to the federal constitution should be referred by referendum to the people.

Last night the Florida Railway Surgeons Association passed the resolution favoring outright repeal.

The entire body of the railroad surgeons left the other text of the resolution intact, however, and went on record as criticizing the law as having "promoted the cause" during its 12 years of operation.

TENN. WOMEN VOTERS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 3.—(AP)—Mrs. Lou Lusky, of Nashville, was re-elected president of the Tennessee League of Women Voters at the closing session today of a two-day conference here. Other officers chosen were:

Mrs. Abby C. Milton, of Chattanooga, third vice president, re-elected; Mrs. Seymour Mynders, of Chattanooga, fifth vice president, re-elected; Mrs. Sophie Freeman, of Memphis, treasurer.

All the elections were for two years. The other officers have a year remaining on their terms.

The league created an advisory board of lawyers, selecting Joseph A. Cullen, of Nashville, chairman; Charles T. Cates, of Knoxville; A. H. Roberts, of Nashville; Albert Williams, of Nashville; Miller of Chattanooga; G. H. Fitzhugh, of Memphis; Miss Marion Griffin, of Memphis; Sam J. McAllester, of Chattanooga; and Kenneth D. McKellar, of Memphis.

A. M. E. CONFERENCE CONTINUES SESSIONS

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 3.—(Special).—The general conference of the A. M. E. church, meeting here in quadrennial session, the St. James A. M. E. church, opened its second day with Bishop H. B. Parks presiding.

The meeting is largely attended by delegates and visitors from throughout America, and from the foreign fields of the church.

The meeting of the delegates by Episcopal districts, the question of placing laymen on the Episcopal committee, and the way in which the organization was perfected, caused a storm of disapproval by the body.

The following persons were named by the body: Dr. R. S. Jenkins, Texas, chief secretary; Dr. W. Boyd Lawrence, Savannah, Ga.; J. C. Beckett, Philadelphia; John Adams, president; Payne College, Ohio; A. L. Bates, Arkansas; L. L. Pope, Indianapolis, Ind.; and G. F. Bartlett, Florida, assistant secretary.

A. & P. WILL SHOW LOCAL FOOD PRODUCTS

The variety and extent of Georgia raised food products handled by the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company in its chain of stores will be illustrated in concrete fashion in the company's booth at the Georgia Products Exposition which will open at the city auditorium Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Watermelons, peaches, asparagus, sugar, tobacco, peanuts, dried fruits, nuts and candy are only a few Georgia raised products which are distributed by the A. & P. chain. Canned goods from Georgia include tomatoes, beans, sweet potatoes and pimentos.

The A. & P. Company, officials announced, spent over $5,632,000 last year for Georgia grown products; these goods having been stocked not only on the shelves of the Georgia stores, but A. & P. stores throughout the country.

The A. & P. exhibit, it is pointed out, will not only prove interesting, but in a way an educational exhibit of home-grown products designed to acquaint exposition visitors with just what is and can be produced in the state.

Socialists Lay Plans For French Run-Off

PARIS, May 3.—(AP)—The executive committee of the radical socialist party today called on local organizations throughout the country to negotiate with other political factions in order to "bar the way to reaction" in the run-off of deputy elections next Sunday.

The executive committee empowered each local group of the party to act as it considered best in these negotiations.

In the election last Sunday, the radical socialists, led by Edouard Herriot, won 63 seats against a total of 37 for Premier Andre Tardieu's left republicans.

In an effort to prevent any further swing to the left in next Sunday's run-off, the premier will make a radio appeal to the nation tomorrow night.

STOKOWSKI URGES FAT PRIMA DONNAS USE STAGE DOUBLE

NEW YORK, May 3.—(AP)—Leopold Stokowski looks forward to the day when two prima donnas will grace every opera—once pleasing to the ear, the other pleasing to the eye.

The conductor of the Philadelphia symphony orchestra has been testing synthetic opera in his home studios with the hope of ushering in this musical millennium. It consists of synchronizing the voices of talented artists on records with the pantomime of handsome actors on the stage.

Opera today, while pleasing to the ear is often a sore trial to the eye," he says. "Take Tannhauser, for example. Venus, the most beautiful woman in the world, is using her charms to tempt Tannhauser from the narrow path of virtue.

"But, unfortunately, the lady who plays the part happens to have eaten too much spaghetti or sauerbraten. She may sing like a nightingale, but she looks like an elephant. Electricity will change her. We can synchronize voice and action and create a perfect illusion."

Stokowski's ideas drew derisive reports from Dr. Walter Damrosch and Giulio Gatti-Casazza, authorities on the subject. They were in agreement that the memory of Venus had been maligned and that the conductor was woefully out of date.

"The day of the fat prima donna has gone," said Dr. Damrosch. "Aristotle is no longer an asset and the vanity of woman operates among the singers in opera as well as among other women. Certainly, Lily Pons, the great Swedish soprano, and Gladys Swarthout are comely and charming to look at."

Gatti was heard to say that "very heavy people are not so prominent any more," that it would be an awkward matter to synchronize voice and action in a love scene; that the whole thing was silly, anyhow.

METHODISTS DEMAND DRY ENFORCEMENT

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 3.—(AP)—A "more vigorous" continuance of national prohibition and an immediate reconstruction of existing relations between industry and the worker were called for today by the board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church in an Episcopal letter to the general conference.

Substitutes and modification plans for the eighteenth amendment were waved aside in the message. As a rallying cry against state liquor control, the following slogan was put forward:

"We can no more have a nation half drunk and half sober than in the days of Lincoln we was possible to have a nation half slave and half free."

The message, read to the quadrennial conference in the cathedral of William F. Anderson, of Boston, on behalf of the board, was equally forceful in its indictment of the present relationship between capital and labor.

The Episcopal message, which constitutes the charge of the general superintendent of the church, to the conference is not an official pronouncement of the attitude of the entire church, but it was the opinion of most delegates that the conference would ratify the majority of the paragraphs, especially those on prohibition.

Although the rules of the conference strictly forbid all demonstrations, the assembly time and again halted the reading on prohibition with ovations of approval and sustained applause.

LOOSE-WILES BISCUITS SHOWN IN LANE EXHIBIT

Visitors at the Georgia products show are particularly invited to view the display of Loose-Wiles biscuit products being staged in connection with the Lane drug store exhibits. An attractive arrangement of booths showing Sunshine Biscuits has been placed in the show in conjunction with Lane's features, and Loose-Wiles has chosen Thousand Window Bakery products to feature this part of the display.

TEACHERS TAKE CUT, TERM IS PROLONGED

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 3.—(AP)—Public school teachers near here, will get another month of schooling because teachers voluntarily reduced their salaries to voluntarily reduce the school funds.

The teachers and drivers of school buses made their salary cut proportion when indications were that the school would not have sufficient money to continue more than eight months of its usual nine months' term.

The school will continue in session until the usual closing date in June.

Paintings Exhibited.

ROME, May 3.—(UP)—An exhibition of the paintings of Laura Bodenbender, of New Orleans, was opened today in the presence of the wife of Ambassador John Garrett and members of the American Art Academy. The press paid tribute to the skill and technique of the artist.

Mrs. Roosevelt Tours Atlanta Stores, Shops

Franklin D. Roosevelt and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Roosevelt, who are at Warm Springs with Governor Roosevelt, spent Tuesday in Atlanta on a shopping tour.

The Roosevelts motored from Warm Springs and spent the day visiting in Atlanta stores and shops. Everywhere they went the nation's prospective first lady caused a flutter, with clerks vying with each other to wait on her. Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughter-in-law returned to Warm Springs late Tuesday afternoon.

PROTEST 5 PER CENT REFRIGERATOR LEVY

Protesting that the proposed federal tax of 5 per cent on mechanical refrigerators is too high, Lester U. Larkin, vice president of the Larkin-Warren Refrigeration Corporation, and V. F. Warren, president of the Warren Company, have telegraphed to Senators Walter F. George and John S. Cohen, in Washington.

These officials said they were not opposed to a reasonable tax, but thought that 5 per cent was too high.

AUNT OF LONGWORTH SUCCEUMS IN PARIS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 3.—(AP)—A cablegram from Paris today told of the death there of Mrs. Maria Longworth Storer, 83, aunt of the late Nicholas Longworth, speaker of the house of representatives.

The message received from Count de Chambrun, her son-in-law, said she died Saturday.

DAIRY WILL FEATURE PRODUCTS OF STATE

J. and A. Dairies will have a booth at the Georgia Products Exposition Wednesday night that will be one of the most unique in the show.

Dairying has made tremendous strides in Georgia in the last two years, according to Herman M. Rogers, of J. and A. Dairies and Foremost Dairy Products.

Georgia is now one of the best dairying states in the country and has a number of herds equal to those in any state.

Propagating the biggest summer ice cream season in the history of Atlanta, Mr. Rogers cited the tremendous reception accorded Cremenfrost, J. and A.'s new frozen cream product, which was introduced in Atlanta a short time ago.

JUDGE LITTLEJOHN DIES IN AMERICUS

Dean of Georgia Superior Court Judges Succumbs to Long Illness.

AMERICUS, Ga., May 3.—(P)—Judge Zera A. Littlejohn, 71, died to-day at his home here following a long illness.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3.30 tomorrow afternoon from the residence.

Judge Littlejohn is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie Shipp Littlejohn; a daughter, Miss Mary Littlejohn, of Americus, and two sons, Z. A. Littlejohn Jr., of Americus, and Dr. William Littlejohn, of Tugaloo, Ga., all of whom were at the bedside when he died.

Judge Littlejohn was born April 30, 1861, in Culoden, Monroe county, the son of Jesse Richardson Littlejohn, an itinerant Methodist minister for 37 years, living in various parts of Georgia.

His practice of law in his young manhood was confined to Cusseta, Cordele and Americus, beginning his profession in 1883. It was during his practice here that he was elected to the superior court bench, and he was the dean of Georgia superior court judges.

He had presided over the courts of the southwestern judicial circuit since 1897.

Judge Littlejohn was married in 1885 to Miss Minnie H. Shipp, daughter of William Wesley Shipp, Chat-

Army and Navy Elevens Appear on Mercer's 1933 Grid Schedule

ENTIRE DERBY FIELD AT TOWNS FOR CLASSIC

BREAK of the DAY!
By Ralph McGill

Mr. Lake Russell, the Mercer University football coach, is a very fine gentleman and an excellent coach. He also seems to be rather successful in making schedules with a careless disregard for punishment which will be his.

While other universities pine for a schedule including either the Army or Navy, Mercer is all signed to play both Army and Navy in 1933. And will likely have a game with Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt that same season. And Tulane is another possibility.

All of which is a hairy-chested football schedule which would make the usual coach at a small university quail and quake. But not Mr. Russell. He hasn't any super-sort of football material. Fact is his squad is one of the smallest numerically in the south. His squad is composed of students who must make a "B" grade to be eligible. And the rule is enforced.

But Mr. Russell knows how to teach football to what he has. And he isn't afraid to test it with other teams.

I gather that 1933 will be Mercer's Centennial and that in helping to celebrate this 100th birthday, Russell wants to give the alumni something to talk about. Mercer alumnus will know that his university is maintaining a high scholastic standard and at the same time has a coach who is able to put a football team into the major spotlight.

Mercer is making no mistake in scheduling Army and Navy. They will give the team and the university much more prestige than would a half dozen more or less obscure elevens.

The Mercer football team will fight for Lake Russell on or off the field. They will fight at the drop of a hat and they will even drop the hat for you if Lake Russell is involved. And yet he is a strict disciplinarian. He fires them right off the squad when they turn out to be not exactly what a coach wants in the way of a soldier. And he battles for them when he knows they are right.

Mercer is fortunate in having a combination of a splendid gentleman and a splendid coach in Lake Russell. And while 1933 is quite a few months away, this splendid achievement of Mercer in scheduling both Army and Navy is certainly worth notice. The 1932 schedule is good. The 1933 card is something else.

OLD MAN BABE RUTH.

George Herman Ruth, so reports say, is suffering from water on the knee or housemaid's knee, or something like that. At any rate something is wrong with the Babe's knee.

One wonders if this means a revival of "Ruth-through-after-the-year" stories. They have been writing the Babe out for so long that the boys are getting a little bit careful about such matters. The Babe always rises up to make the forecasters look a bit silly.

He has housemaid's knee and yet is staggering around out there with the very terrible batting average of almost .350 and a record of six home runs. The Babe has been the subject of so many stories that one risks the chance of boring one's readers. Yet the old fellow continues being a bit remarkable. No game has produced a star comparable to him.

His stomach ache some years ago was the only stomach ache to be felt around the world. And probably the only stomach ache to make page one in the daily prints.

On feuding that he was playing despite housemaid's knee and other ailments it was a relief to look up his average and see just how badly he is slipping. Hitting well over .300 and resting with five home runs. The Babe never grows old. The first reliable report that he was "through" was published in 1925. And look at him now.

THE BAKER'S DOZEN.

There are always some interesting sidelights to the various large athletic competitions. The sidelights around a championship heavyweight match are often much more interesting than the battle itself.

One reads, now, that the Olympic games are nearing us, that the bakers in Los Angeles are having a difficult time. They are all working for contracts to produce the bread which the athletes will eat. They will not eat the same fare. Each nation will be served some of its native dish. I do not know if this means that the Japanese will have chop suey; the French french dressing; the Danes Great Danes or what. But they are to have their own breads.

Despite the expense, I think this is probably correct. Because at a delicatessen the other night the owner persuaded me to try some genuine Swedish bread, the sort that Paavo Nurmi trained on. And it was rather terrible to take for one who has been reared on hot biscuit and cornbread. I am afraid that the American athletes would not get very far on a diet of Swedish bread.

The picture which the news service sent in showed a very comely young lady holding both arms full of the various loaves of bread which the athletes will eat. They were all of curious shapes and designs. And I wonder what baker will win the Olympic wreath for baking the best bread?

LOOK AT THOSE STANDINGS.

Baseball fans at the Polo Grounds will be calling Mr. John McGraw by that nickname which he detests so terribly when the club resumes play after today's off-day. The Giants splashed right down into the bottom of the cellar, a dark old cellar, too; when the Brooklyn took them yesterday.

The victory elevated those solemn, serious and well-exercised Brooklyn to seventh place. The Mighty Pirates are in sixth place. The Cardinals have climbed all the way to fifth place.

Those Boston Braves are leading the National league. And if the spectacle of the Cardinals, Brooklyn, Giants and Pirates all piled into the second division isn't the most humorous thing of the year then what is?

ARMY AND NAVY ARE SCHEDULED BY BEAR ELEVEN

Service Elevens To Be Played in 1933 by Mercer.

Lake F. Russell, Mercer University's well-known football coach, who in the short span of three years has done so much to elevate athletics at the institution, yesterday made an announcement of some big football news for the school's alumni everywhere.

Russell, here on a visit for several days, stated that negotiations have been virtually concluded for a game between his team and the Naval Academy at Annapolis for October 7, 1933, and that Army would be played at West Point two weeks later of the same season.

The contract with Army already has been closed and that with Navy is expected to be signed in a few days. The game with the Midshipmen is thereby virtually assured.

While meeting two such teams in one season and such a short time apart is a tremendous undertaking in itself, Russell is well pleased with having the two games on his schedule, for they will be the athletic highlights of Mercer's centennial program in 1933, when the university passes the 100th milestone of its existence as an institution.

It will be the first time that a Georgia eleven has ever tackled both Army and Navy in the same season. The Bears open their 1932 schedule with Vanderbilt in Nashville. Plans are going forward for the addition of several more big games to the centennial schedule of 1933.

Mercer Coach

Here is Lake Russell, Mercer University's popular coach, who is visiting in Atlanta this week. In today's Constitution Russell announces the scheduling of games with Army and Navy for his team in 1933.

WOMEN'S GOLF LEAGUE OPENS

East Lake, Capital City and West End were winners Tuesday morning in the opening of the newly-organized Atlanta Women's Golf Association league schedule, on the No. 1 East Lake course.

East Lake defeated Druid Hills, 6 to 5; Capital City won over Ansley Park, 5 to 1, and West End beat the Municipal team, 6 to 0.

One of the outstanding matches of the day was between Mrs. H. L. Pritchard, of the West End team, and Mrs. Carlyle Fraser, of the Municipal team. Mrs. Pritchard was 5 down at 11, and Mrs. Fraser was 6 down at 12. Mrs. Pritchard came back strong to win the back nine and break even with Mrs. Fraser on the match. Mrs. Pritchard played her best game and turned in a fine 45 on the difficult back nine.

In the East Lake-Druid Hills match, Mrs. Moody lost 2 points to Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Butler lost 3 points to Mrs. Fowler, but Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Campbell gave East Lake a 1-point margin by winning all 6 points from Mrs. Mentzer and Mrs. Black, respectively.

Mrs. C. C. Clower gave Ansley Park its only point with a victory over Miss Warren, while Mrs. Douglas beat Mrs. Welch, 2 points, and Mrs. Pritchard and Mrs. Fraser broke even with Mrs. Jones beat Mrs. Reade 1 point, Mrs. Pollard beat Mrs. Howell 2 points, and Mrs. King won 3 points over Mrs. Rusk.

The second round of the schedule will be played next Tuesday morning on the Druid Hills course, starting at 9 o'clock.

City plays East Lake, Druid Hills, the host, meets the Municipal players and West End opposes Ansley Park in next Tuesday's matches.

Mrs. O. B. Keeler, president of the association, announced that a monthly match play tourney will be played May 16 and the Capital City course.

Qualifying rounds will be played Monday and match play starts Tuesday and the players will be grouped into flights of eight each. All handicaps will apply in each match.

Druids Hills Club Stages Meet Today

A best-ball foursome tournament for members of the Druid Hills Golf Club has been set for 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Prizes will be given to each member of the winning foursome, and only the best ball of all players in each quartet will count.

It is the second of a series of one-day novelty tournaments to be sponsored by the club in compliance to the many new members, and at least one new player is included in each foursome.

Any other member of the club who desires to participate in today's event is requested to communicate with Harry Stephens, the club professional, and be assigned a starting time.

The foursomes are:

1:00—Fred Teague, Major Meehan, James Duhaup and Ernest Fowler.

1:40—R. G. Frankish, T. C. Davenport, Dr. Carlin Weaver and L. Crawford.
1:45—W. F. Mettriv and Frank Pierson, with foursome to be completed today.

HARVARD WINS.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 3.—(AP) The Harvard varsity crew opened its season on the Charles river today by surging over the finish line a length and a quarter ahead of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Harvard's time for the mile and three-quarters was 9:27 1-5 and Techno's 9:32 1-5.

CHICKS OUTSLUG CRACKERS, WIN THIRD GAME, 10-7

Johnny Chapman Hits in His 21st Consecutive Game of Season.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 3.—On the sagging shoulders of his mates, Walter Beck, the big tribal right-hander, was carried through eight innings, then picked up by George Granger, a young right-hander, and carried the rest of the way, but the Chicks won another ball game from the Crackers today. The score was 10 to 7. The victory kept the Chicks one game ahead of the Lookouts, who bowled over the Barons.

Waldo "Climas" Blethen, right-hander of the Crackers who started out pitching with Beck, fell first. Blethen went out in the fourth inning with two on base and none out, and Johnny Carithers, young left-hander, went in and stopped the Chicks for a while but they broke out against him in the sixth when they scored four more runs on four hits. Blethen had been scored on five times and hit safely eight times before he departed. The Chicks were leading 5 to 3 when Carithers took it up.

Beck, who nearly went down several times but was propped up by his mates each time, fell by the wayside in the ninth when Chapman, first up, singled, Barnes walked and Nash was hit by a pitched ball. Granger didn't allow a hit and pitched to only four batters but two scored after outfield out, Beck allowed 12 hits.

CHAPPIE HITS.

Johnny Chapman, Cracker third baseman, hit in his twenty-first straight game.

The Crackers lit on Beck without any ceremony. Chapman walked and Goff doubled, scoring him. Rosenthal doubled, scoring Goff. Chapman filed to Reese, Barnes lined to Reese, who made a diving catch and doubled Rosenthal off second.

Beck walked to start the Chicks off. Gillis struck out and Hamel popped to Chatham. Reese doubled against the back wall, scoring Bell, who had stolen second, and then Big Joe sent one soaring over the right-field boards and loped home behind Reese.

The Crackers were in the lead once more in the second when Chatham, who opened the inning with a triple, scored after Reese's catch of Goff's fly. Rosenthal and Chapman walked but Barnes and Nash couldn't help them.

The Chicks went back into the lead in the third and stayed there. Gillis doubled and Hamel followed suit, scoring him. Reese grounded to Chatham and Hamel ran into Chapman, who took the throw to third. Hutcherson walked and Brazill singled, scoring Reese and putting Hutcherson on third. Brazill stole second while Blethen was fondling the ball, but Reese popped to Goff and Berger grounded out.

CRACKERS RALLY.

The Crackers got back in striking distance when in the sixth, with one out Cummings doubled against the back fence. Rowland filed to Reese and Carithers walked. Chatham singled and Cummings hit. Goff filed to Hutcherson.

Beck singled to start the fourth. Bell singled, sending Beck to second. This brought on young Carithers. Gillis filed to Rosenthal and Beck made third after the catch. Then Chatham kicked the return around and Bell took second. Hamel filed to Barnes in short center and Beck, foolishly trying to score after the catch, was out standing up.

Young Carithers had his troubles in the sixth when the Chicks singled. Bobo walked to start it and Berger sacrificed. Beck, who batted much better than he pitched, singled for his third hit by beating out a grounder to deep short. Bell beat out a roller down the third-base line and the paths were lined with tribesmen. Gillis singled, scoring Bobo and Beck, and sending Bell to third. Gillis swiped second and Hamel walked to fill the bases again. Reese singled, scoring Bell and putting Chatham on second. Hamel on third. Reese stole second. Hutcherson popped to Chatham and Brazill grounded to Chatham and

Stars for White Sox

Luke Appling, the young man who stepped direct from a shortstop berth with the Atlanta Crackers into the big leagues, is playing great ball for Lou Fonseca's Chicago White Sox. Latest averages show Appling to be hitting .390, and he is playing a fine game afield. The Atlantan is making a nice comeback from last year, his first up, when he had an erratic season. The story below also tells of the progress Joyner White, a Tech High product, is making with Detroit's Tigers.

Georgia Youths Star With Big League Clubs

Appling Stages Comeback; Joyner White Helps Detroit; Wyatt, Cedartown, Good.

By Jimmy Jones.

This being the time of year when John Fan puts on his spectacles and probes promiscuously around in the box scores, it stands to reason that he will not overlook the fact that some of Georgia's native sons are cutting quite a figure in the two major league pennant-junkies.

Just to be sure, however, that proper emphasis is given the matter, your attention is respectfully called to the fact that Joyner White, former Tech High outfielder, has appeared three times in a row as a pinch batsman for Bucky Harris' Detroit Tigers and on each occasion, has delivered with an important hit.

It is refreshing to note, also, the fine comeback that Luke Appling, former Oglethorpe Petrel and Atlanta Cracker, is doing in the White Sox infield, where he is hitting .390 and fielding accurately. Luke had an erratic season his first year up in 1931, but he wrote Lou Fonseca during the winter that he wanted one more chance. Fonseca gambled on him and now Luke is one of the few White Sox players who is sure of his job.

Whitlow Wyatt, a youngster from Cedartown, Ga., has been doing some sterling pitching for Detroit in that club's early season squirts. There is a little story about Wyatt, that Bela Lancaster, who was his coach at Cedartown High a few years back, told the writer. It seems that Wyatt, who was a pretty good high school footballer, had ambitions of a gridiron career with one of the state colleges.

He talked with several coaches and all of them, including W. A. Alexander, of Tech, advised him to accept a scholarship to attend college. Wyatt had proffered him, since his future as a big league pitcher was considerably brighter than that of a college footballer. Wyatt took this advice and in two seasons became a regular on the Tigers' staff.

Georgians feel very close to this Detroit outfit.

Since the days of Ty Cobb's glory, there has been a procession of Georgia boys serving in the liveries of the Tigers, including Red Wingo and Carl Easter, outfielders, and Ken Holloman, a pitcher.

LIBERTY LIMITED LIMPS IN DRILL; EAST HAS EDGE

Adobe Post Wins by Spurt; Bradley Racers Show Speed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3.—(UP)—With the arrival today of Brandon Mint and Lucky Tom, the entire Kentucky Derby field is on the scene of battle.

Seven of the eastern 3-year-olds, Unverser, Economic, Stepenfether, Overtime, Tick On and today's two arrivals, will bear the burden of the $50,000 classic for the Atlantic seaboard. In all probability they will be opposed by eight or nine thoroughbreds from the west, including Co. Check, Liberty Limited, Burgoon King, Brother Joe, Cathop Cee Tee, Galant Sir, Prince Hotspur and perhaps Sazerac and Calcezar.

On cold figures, the east appears to hold the advantage by a wide margin.

LIBERTY LIMITED.

Liberty Limited, the main reliance of the Three D's stable, gave his followers cause for uneasiness today when he evinced soreness around the eye which he had injured in a race. His two infected heels appeared to bother him considerably. Jockey Mack Garner, who was engaged last autumn to ride the colt in the Derby, is due here on Friday.

There was little activity on the part of Derby eligibles today. The E. R. Bradley pair, Burgoon King and Brother Joe, were sent over a half-mile in .48 3-5 in preparation for a trial over the Derby route tomorrow. Stepenfether, one of Mrs. John H. Whitney's hopes, was breezed a quarter of a mile in .26.

SLOW GALLOPS.

Economic and Unverser, the former owned by J. H. Jouchman, of Philadelphia, and the latter the property of T. M. Cassidy, of New York, were given long and slow exercise gallops. Both are due for faster trials tomorrow.

Jockey Pete Walls, who will be astride Tick On in the big race, breezed the favorite around the track a couple of times.

Trainer Tommy Taylor, who is preparing Cathop for R. M. Eastman, of Chicago, is searching high and low for a competent rider to handle his charge next Saturday. He made an effort to landockey Bill Garner, who was training at the track, but Trainer Bill Crump, who is handling Cold Check, beat him to Garner.

Adobe Post Wins Preparation Race.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3.—(AP) Adobe Post, heretofore lightly regarded as a Kentucky Derby candidate, was the surprise winner of the Preparation Race at Churchill Downs today, defeating 10 other derby eligibles, and advancing an almost certain starter in the $50,000 added stake to be raced Saturday.

The Knebelkamp and Morris nominee disposed of a crack field of western derby candidates with ease, and finished two and one-half lengths in front of the late Joseph Leiter's Prince Hotspur, which beat J. W. Parrish's Cold Check for the place by a head. Adobe Post ran the mile in 1:38 4-5.

PAYS GOOD PRICE.

Overlooked by most of the bettors, who had made Prince Hotspur and A. B. Sazerac the favorites at 3 to 1, Adobe Post rewarded his backers $23.56 for a $2 win ticket, $11.10 to place and $5.32 to show. Prince Hotspur placed for $5.62 and show $5.52. Cold Check paid $4.18 to show.

The Jackson Park Stable's Crystal Prince, a rank outsider, was fourth by a head and Hal Price Headley's Indian Runner fifth, also by a head. A length back was Norman W. Church's Col. Sazerac, and last were Charles T. Fisher's Cee Tee, J. B. Respass' Our Fancier, Mrs. W. T. Anderson's Cabeso, Plunkett and Chinn's Pass and Sazerac.

DRIVES AHEAD.

Adobe Post was off last and was among the tailenders until the head of the stretch, when he moved around fast and won going away.

Six derbies are entered in races at the Downs tomorrow. A seven-furlong race for fillies will include J. W. Parrish's Depression, which may start in the derby, coupled with Cold Check if she wins tomorrow.

McGehee, Orrell Victors at Ansley

C. C. McGehee and Captain Orrell defeated Dan Sage Jr. and Jack Cook, 2-1, Thursday afternoon to win a best ball foursome tournament on the Ansley Park course.

It was the first of a series of tournaments to be played on the Ansley Park course during the next few months. The President's cup tourney is the next on the program and will start May 15.

G. M. C. Is Victorious Over Middle Georgia

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., May 3.—The G. M. C. Cadets made 17 hits good for 17 runs today to defeat the Middle Georgia College team of Coach Jake Morris, 17 to 9, in the fourth and last game of the series between the two teams.

Thomas, relieved Stokes in the fourth inning and held the visitors to two hits for five and two-thirds innings. Shannon, Bloodworth and Heath did the heavy hitting for the local boys, while Pennington and Scarborough drove in most of the runs for the visitors.

Tech and Sewanee Tennis Teams Tie

Georgia Tech and Sewanee tied at tennis here Tuesday, winning three matches apiece.

The results in the singles: Burwell, Sewanee, defeated Conniff, Tech, 6-4, 6-1.

Wellford, Sewanee, defeated Morgan, Tech, 7-5, 6-4.

West, Tech, defeated Gamble, Sewanee, 6-2, 6-1.

Jackson, Tech, beat Butler, Sewanee, 6-2, 6-1.

There were two doubles matches, the last of which was played in the dark. In the opening match Maynard and Conniff, Tech, downed Wellford and Butler, 6-1, 6-2.

Burwell and Gamble, Sewanee, were victorious over Morgan and Jackson, Tech, in the final match, 7-5, 4-6, 6-4.

Tech has won seven matches and lost none this season.

Mexican Cup Team Prepares for U. S.

MEXICO CITY, May 3.—(AP)—The Mexican Davis cup team, consisting of Ernesto F. Lopez, non-playable captain; Ricardo Tapia, Mexico's No. 1 player; Alfonso Unda, Angel Roldan and Eduardo Maestre, will leave for New Orleans May 5 to prepare for the second-round matches with the United States May 15, 14 and 15.

PETRELS LEAVE ON TRIP TODAY;
PLAY 4 GAMES

Fort Benning First on Schedule; Auburn
Series Is Next

By Jack Troy.

The Ogletheorpe baseball team leaves town today for a pair of exhibition games with Fort Benning at Columbus and the opening of the pennant-deciding series with the Auburn Tigers at the Plains.

The Petrels play the Soldiers this afternoon and Thursday, after which they will depart for Auburn for the two-game series Friday and Saturday.

Coach Frank Anderson's club, tied with Auburn for the lead in the league with six victories and three defeats, is better off for pitching than at any time this season with the return of Belton Clark, who was released from an operation for appendicitis.

Walker's return gives the Petrels four good hurlers. Charley Mitchell, pitcher with five victories and only one defeat, Belton Clark and Lefty Dixon are great sophomore moundmen.

The Petrels have the best hitting team in the league and are second best in fielding. Charley George, first baseman, Mattie Ragsdale, leading in hitting with an average of .456.

There has been no change in the lineup, which follows: Parker Bryant, pitcher; Mattie Ragsdale, first base; Hal Martin, shortstop; Frank Anderson Jr., third base; Charley George, left field; Sam Baker, center field; and Lefty Dixon, right field.

Tech and Georgia, state rivals, go to war at the Rose Bowl here Friday and Saturday. Georgia, by winning all four of its games, could tie for the title with Oglethorpe and Auburn divided four games, could tie the leaders.

Oglethorpe and Auburn will meet

Ponce de Leon park next week-end, in double-headers with the Crackers and Knoxville. The league pennant will be at stake.

Coach Anderson announced last night that he was taking the entire squad of 17 players on the trip, which will be made in four automobiles. Vance, Whaley and Craven are the catchers.

the big bargain in baking powder

THERE'S a "lot for your money" in a can of Rumford.

There's leavening power that assures well-baked cakes and hot breads. Two-thirds of the rising action takes place in the mixing and makes dough light before it's placed in the oven. The balance of the rising takes place in the oven and makes the bake light and perfectly leavened all the way through.

There's assurance, too, (and it's backed by 52 laboratory tests!) that Rumford's guaranteed two-to-one leavening action never fails.

There's added food value as well as baking powder. In Rumford you get food elements which are too often missing in the other items of your family's diet—calcium and the phosphates so vital to good bones and teeth and sound nerves.

Get Rumford today from your grocer and prove to your own satisfaction that this dependable, all-phosphate powder gives you a baking powder value unequalled at any price.

Will Lead Rainbow Trail at Charity Circus

The accompanying photograph presents a group of girls selected from various Methodist churches in Atlanta to act as leaders in the Rainbow Trail, which will be one of the many features provided at the charity circus to be staged next Saturday afternoon at Lullwater Farms, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Candler. The carnival is sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of Emory University hospital, and will assemble children from all over the city. The Rainbow Trail feature is under the direction of Mrs. George Knott, of St. Mark's Methodist church, who will be assisted by Mrs. John Hughlett, Mrs. Ben Hall and Mrs. Hunter Bell. Appearing from left to right in the photograph are Misses Anna Berrien, Alice DeJannett, Charlotte Rooks, Doris Everett, Elizabeth Cox, Mary Stipe, Florence Cauthen, Eleanor Peebles, Lois Shankle and Ruth Horton. Misses Isabelle Boykin and Elizabeth Barge, who will also participate in the Rainbow Trail quest, do not appear in the photograph, which was made by Bill Mason, staff photographer.

Miss Mabel Moore Feted at Series Of Prenuptial Parties

Miss Mabel Moore and Fred Hargrave McDonald, whose engagement announcement created wide interest among their host of friends, have chosen Saturday, May 21, as the date for their wedding. The ceremony will be solemnized at 6 o'clock at the Druid Hills Baptist church, and Dr. Louie Newton, pastor of the church, will read the marriage service.

Miss Moore is receiving much social attention and being entertained at a series of interesting parties prior to her marriage. Mrs. Ben Padgett Jr. has planned a bridge-tee as a compliment to the bride-elect on Saturday, May 7, inviting 12 friends to meet her.

Misses Jonnie Butler, Pearl Brown, Dorothy Witt and Helen Witt will be hostesses at bridge and a miscellaneous shower at the home of the Misses Witt on North Boulevard Wednesday evening, May 11. Miss Mildred Carter gave a trousseau-shower Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Moore, at her home at 1084 Blue Ridge avenue, N. E. The guests included Misses Mabel Moore, Virginia Wilson, Elizabeth Cranford, Mary Kate Merck, Dorothy Witt, Nona Chapman, Pearl Bravwell, Elise Nash, Nancy Wallace, Lucy Richards, Gladys Mosley, Katharine Mathis, Mary Dell Garner, Carolyn Mills, Hortense Sewell, Vera Berry, Alma Wandell, Elminie Austin, Mildred Carter, and Mesdames Charles W. Outlaw, George Laney, Ben Padgett Jr., Robert Taylor and Eugene Moore. The bride-elect wore a chiffon gown of a mellow shade and the hostess wore a pink lace.

IT CATER FOR A SCARF

Delightfully young and smart is this new slim-line model.

Since crepe silk both plain and print is so charming, it was chosen for this fascinating model.

It is light navy blue spotted in red. The soft, crushed scarf collar gives it such distinction in plain white crepe.

For summer wear, handkerchief linen prints, delicate prints and tub silks are nice mediums.

Style No. 859 is designed for sizes 16, 18, 20 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust. Size 16 requires 31-4 yards of 39-inch material with 1-2 yard of 39-inch contrasting.

Our large Fashion Magazine will help you economize. It includes styles for the miss, the stout, the matron and adorable models for the kiddies. Also modern embroidery for the home, lingerie, pajamas, etc.

Price of book, 15 cents.

Price of pattern, 15 cents in stamps or coin. Wrap coin carefully.

Mrs. Turner Jones Elected Member Of Junior League Finance Group

Mrs. Turner Jones was elected as the new member of the finance committee of the Atlanta Junior League at the meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Piedmont Driving Club, following a rule inaugurated this year that the new member be chosen at the May meeting.

The June meeting of the Junior League will take the form of a luncheon, according to a decision from yesterday's meeting, and it will feature the installation of the officers who will guide the league's affairs for the coming year. The place of the meeting will be announced later.

Reports of officers and chairmen featured the rest of the meeting, those giving reports including Mrs. Joel Chandler Harris Jr., treasurer; Mrs. William Warren Jr., chairman of hospital committee; Mrs. Everett Richardson Jr., who keeps the record of service hours; Mrs. Turner Jones, magazine chairman; Mrs. Edward Van Winkle Jr., marionette chairman, who reported a marionette show given at the recent pure food show and home exhibition; Mrs. William Fulghum, chairman of work for the Welfare Society; Mrs. William Healey Jr., chairman of the recent kennel club show; Mrs. Russell Bellman, chairman of hostesses for the league at the recent pure food show and home exhibition; Miss Virginia Courts, who reported on the Red Cross drive; Mrs. Sam Mangum, chairman for the garden tours sponsored by the Eggleston Memorial hospital; and Mrs. Reginald Fleet, chairman of the arts and interest committee, who reported that an exhibition of members' work from the Atlanta league had been forwarded to Los Angeles, Cal., for the national convention to be held May 24-27.

"If they do not examine them too closely," said Tarzan, "they will think we died in attempting to escape." The prince began to rifle the fat money pouch of one unconscious fellow. "Gold will open many doors for us," he remarked.

In silence the two traveled far from that portion of the Royal Dome in which they had been incarcerated, meeting few because of the early morning hour. The two realized, however, that soon the corridors would be filled. "We had better hide awhile," advised Komodoffensal.

"Here is just the place," he said, "a common chamber where many can purchase lodging." They entered and a slave came forward. "Candles for two," demanded Komodoffensal, handing the fellow a coin. Soon the two fell into much needed sleep.

Later they boldly went out into the dome's broad thoroughfare, new Halls with humbug. There Tarzan saw the women of the warrior class, for the first time. Their faces were painted deep vermilion, their ears blue, and their apparel such that the left leg and arm were bare.
